Please note: Applicants seeking financial assistance in the form of tuition reductions must apply by the deadline of Monday, March 11, 2019 for consideration.

Upon notification of acceptance into the 2019 Harvard Ukrainian Summer Institute, applicant must then complete the registration process with Harvard Summer School.

Registration for courses you will take as part of the HUSI program is done through the Summer School online registration process: http://www.summer.harvard.edu/adult-college-students/course-registration.

Additional registration requirements for Harvard Summer School (if applicable):

❑ Complete the requirements to receive an I-20 certificate from Harvard Summer School for the F-1 student visa. View the requirements in your Online Services account.
❑ Request Summer School housing in your Online Services account.
❑ Pay any remaining balances on your account. Credit card payments are accepted through Online Services. View alternative payment options on the Summer School website: www.summer.harvard.edu/registration-arrival/tuition-fees-payment/payment-options
❑ If you will live in Summer School housing or are an international student attending Summer School while on a visa of any kind (including students who use the visa waiver program or similar entry programs established between the United States and foreign countries), you must comply with Massachusetts and Harvard University regulations requiring proof of immunization against certain communicable diseases.
   For deadline dates check the Harvard Summer School website.

The Harvard Ukrainian Summer Institute (HUSI) is a specialized program within the Harvard Summer School. Applicants have the option to take a 4-credit course through HUSI and an additional 4-credit course through the Harvard Summer School (separate online registration required at: http://www.summer.harvard.edu/registration-arrival).

Please note: Financial aid through HURI is not offered for non-HUSI courses.
